Michaels Cuebid: Bridge Bidding Convention

There is a school of thought that a Michaels bid should be avoided with a medium hand such as: A Q 7 6 4 A Q 10 7 6 5 4 2. The thinking is that when partner chooses a major, you won't know whether or not a game is in the picture. For that reason, many players choose to define Michaels as "weak/preemptive or very strong--not in-between."

Defense to Michaels Bridge Convention - Bidding and Responses

You will find that your opponents don't often sit still when your partner uses Michaels. Because your partner is 5-5 in the majors, it hints that there is going to be extra distribution around the table, and that gives some impetus to more bidding. What do your bids mean when right-hand opponent acts over your partner's Michaels cuebid?
