I love art books episode 001: Overwatch Visual Sourcebook The Art Of Overwatch Limited Overall, the art is almost exclusively drawings and actual art (exactly what I want), there are very few in game models. While random concepts are a little sparse, for a game like this everything is kind of concept art (plus the comments and quotes really explain what the team and thinking) so I think it deserves a pass as compared to a solitary single player story game.

The book includes designs on all original heroes as well as the first three added to the game post-launch: Ana, Sombra, and Orisa. Hopefully one day we can get a second instalment that covers the other characters! The Limited Edition's exclusives are a plastic slipcase and 3 art prints. The prints are gorgeous and will be lovely to frame eventually!
