GUIDE / meaning in the Cambridge English Dictionary

A personal reference is someone who can speak to your character and abilities. This person typically knows you in a more personal capacity. A personal reference can be a neighbor, a volunteer leader, a coach, or even a friend. Get more information about who to ask for a character reference, and how to write a character reference letter.

What You Should Know About Job References

Referencing is when you acknowledge other peoples' work and allow the reader to locate the sources you have used. Plagiarism happens when a student submits an assignment that contains work that is not their own, without acknowledging their sources in the form of references.
